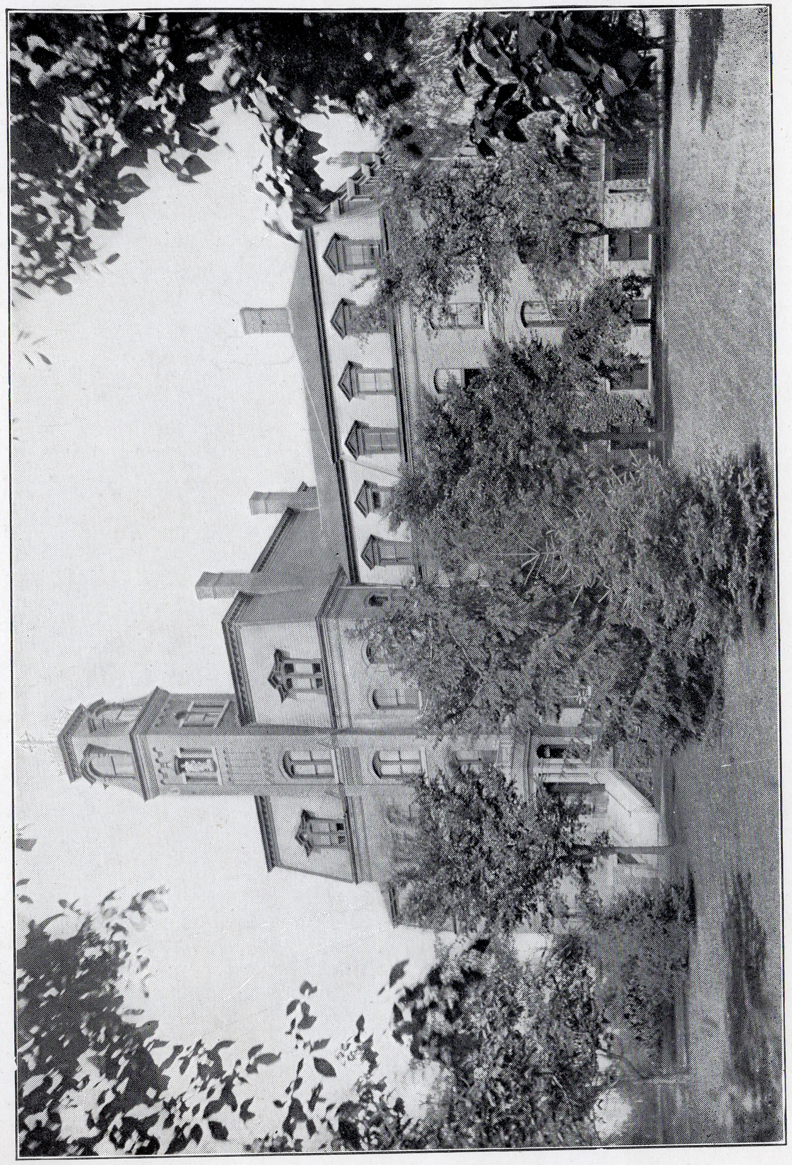
FOREWORD

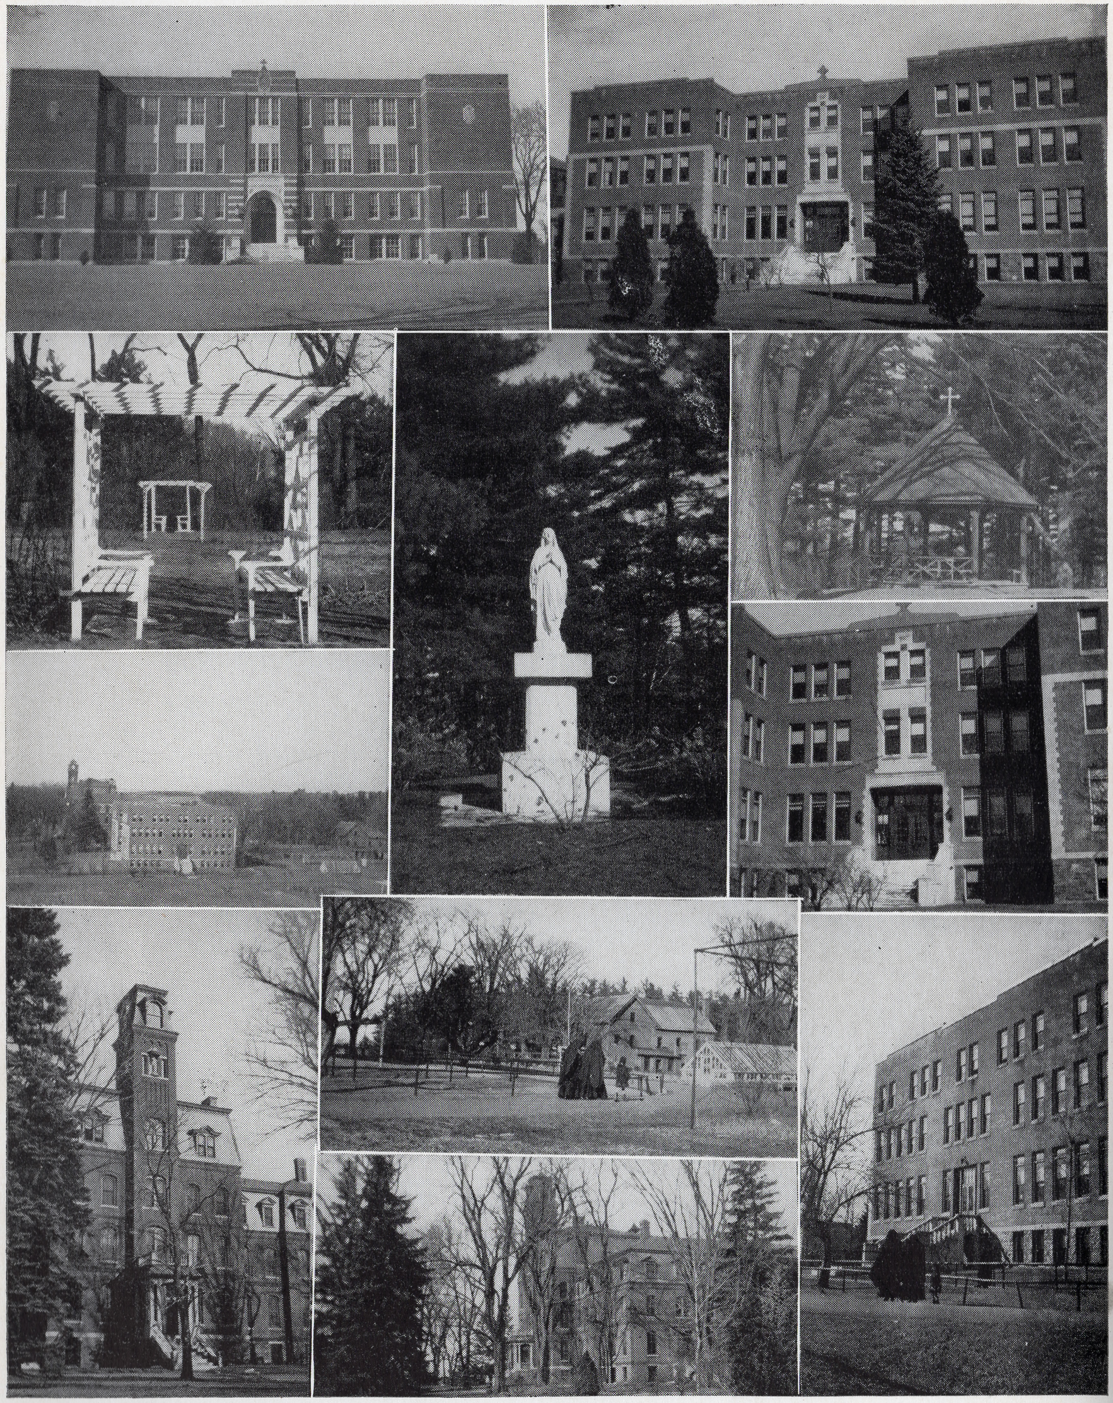
If in the distant future, when time covers your high school recollections with a misty cloud, you can open these pages and be carried back to the well-loved places, forgotten friends, and familiar faces that meant Cathedral, then we, the editors, shall not have toiled in vain. So lest you forget and want to remember—we present to posterity THE TOWER—1946.



DEDICATION

The persons with whom we have come in contact daily, for the past four years, have played an important part in the shaping of our characters. Among the many people whom we have met and become acquainted with, our teachers stand out as the ones to whom we owe so much. These passing years, that have contributed so greatly to the molding of our intellectual, spiritual, and Christian characters, will be captured forever within us, and remembering them will enable us to look fearlessly into the future and help to retain peace in a recently disrupted world.

To those Towers of Teaching who, by their untiring and altruistic efforts, by their patience, and by their integrity, have made this possible, we befittingly dedicate this TOWER of 1946. To the Sisters of Mercy, may the following pages tend to show that their unfailing guidance will be ever remembered and locked safely in our Tower of Memory.



THE SISTERS OF MERCY

It is nearly three-quarters of a century since the June day in 1872 when the Sisters of Mercy, accepting the urgent invitation of the Right Reverend Louis de Goesbriand to help teach the chlidren in his diocese, first came to the Green Mountain State.

Established in Dublin, Ireland, in 1831 by Mary Catherine McAuley, a wealthy heiress, the Institute of Mercy, closely uniting the active with the contemplative life, is devoted par excellence to Christian education and Christian social service. Its Rules and Constitution were approved by Pope Gregory XVI in 1841 and the Congregation spread rapidly. Foundations were made in England, Scotland, Australia, New Zealand, South America, South Africa, Newfoundland, and the United States. The first house to be opened in this country was in Pittsburgh in 1843, just twelve years after the founding of the Institute. Numerous other convents in the United States succeeded the Pittsburgh foundation; today there are convents of Mercy in thirty-five of the forty-eight states.

When Mother Frances Xavier Ward, American Foundress of the Sisters of Mercy, was on her way to Chicago to establish a community of Sisters there in 1846, she became acquainted with Reverend Father de Goesbriand, then Vicar-General of the Cleveland diocese. Her dauntless apostolic spirit which, like that of her patron, was undismayed by the primitive conditions of travel, her fortitude and ardent zeal aroused the admiration of the young priest. From her he learned the work and the aims of the Institute of Mercy. When the former missionary priest of Ohio became the first Bishop of Burlington, he was faced with the problem of establishing parochial schools in his diocese. Remembering the intrepid little Irish nun, then Superior of the Motherhouse in Manchester in his neighboring diocese, he applied to her for Sisters.

The first attempt to establish the Sisters of Mercy in Vermont, however, was doomed to failure. St. Johnsbury, the site of the venture, was at that time a small town and the Catholic people too poor to support a school. Despite the valiant efforts of the paster, Father Danielou, the school had to be discontinued.

The Bishop, determined to keep the Sisters of Mercy in his diocese, asked them to come to Burlington to take charge of the boys and girls at Saint Mary's, the predecessor of the present-day Cathdral Grammar School. Sister Mary Stanislaus O'Malley, the first superior and foundress of the community in Vermont, Sister Mary Pauline Whalen, Sister Mary Ita Murphy, and Sister Mary Joachim Higgins formed the nucleus of the new community. Later two novices, Sister Mary Madgalen Yorke and Sister Mary Clare McManus, were sent from Manchester to join the Vermont group.

For a short time the Sisters lived in a small house on North Street; they soon moved to a house on Pine Street, and the following year to the third story of Saint Mary's Hall. In 1876 St. Patrick's Convent, now a part of the Cathedral Grammar School, was completed and ready for occupancy. Although this was a large, substantial brick building, it soon proved too small to accommodate the Motherhouse, novitiate, and the boarding school which, at the Bishop's suggestion had been opened there in 1878. Moreover Saint Mary's Hall was also proving too small for the classes assembled there. To relieve this situation, the Sisters purchased property on Mansfield Avenue where the central portion of Mount Saint Mary Academy was erected. Here the Motherhouse, novitiate, and boarding school were transferred in 1885.

Although trials and suffering beset the community, God's blessing rested on it. The small group of six pioneer religious has grown into a community that today numbers one hundred fifty-nine. The Sisters now conduct Trinity College, Mount Saint Mary Academy with high school and grade departments, and a Juniorate. They teach in Cathedral High School, Cathedral Grade School, and Christ the King School in Burlington; St. Michael's High and Grade Schools in Montpelier; St. Monica's School in Barre; and St. Mary's School in Middlebury. Approximately 3,500 children of the diocese of Burlington are being educated today in schools staffed by Sisters of Mercy. The Sisters also conduct classes in Christian Doctrine for public school children and help with the Vacation Schools in numerous parishes throughout the state. A very important phase of their work is the visitation and instruction of the sick in hospitals and private dwellings.

The seed humbly sown by the saintly Bishop de Goesbriand when he brought the little group of Sisters of Mercy into Vermont has grown to proportions such as he probably never dreamed. May God's blessing continue to rest upon the work which he began.

Tribute To

OUR MOST REVEREND BISHOP

We, the members of the graduating class, sincerely express our deepest affection and gratitude to our newly appointed Bishop, the Most Reverend Edward F. Ryan, D.D.

Our association with him, as members of Cathedral High School has been brief, and it is indeed our great loss that we could not have been with him longer.

The task that lies before him is by no means a small one, but with the grace and guidance of Almighty God, he will fulfill his obligations to the utmost.

Tribute To

OUR RIGHT REVEREND MONSIGNOR

To express our feeling of appreciation and thanksgiving would be a vain attempt on our part, as full justice could not be done for such a task.

During our four wonderful years you have always been ready to offer your moral and intellectual support for any of our undertakings.

We will always remember what you have done on our behalf and we sincerely hope that we will obtain benefits to the utmost at all times, from your teachings and principles.

Tribute To

OUR PRINCIPAL

There is surely no way sufficient enough, through which we are able to convey our heartfelt gratitude and thanks for such a task well done. You have been our friend and protector for four years.

Therefore, we humbly offer our respects and wish you God-speed in all of your future undertakings and tasks.

VALEDICTORY

Tonight, as we reach the completion of our high school career, we the members of the graduating class of 1946 have attained the educational end of the past four years and have arrived at the begining of another path. There is great pleasure in accomplishment, but there is sorrow in the contemplation that we have reached this completion.

Our school life has given us an education in character formation and studies, as well as in our all important Catholic religion. Feeling that we have been thus benefited, our thoughts, turn to our friends in heartfelt gratitude for all that they have done for us in giving us an excellent education.

Your Excellency and Reverend Fathers, we are indeed grateful for your presence here, whereby you show your interest in our welfare as you have always shown it in our past scholastic years. We shall treasure in our hearts the religious instruction so often expounded to us by you and ask your blessings and prayers that we may always be strong children of the Catholic Faith.

Our gratitude also goes to our teachers for all that they have taught us. We have not the ability to repay them, but by our nobleness of character and constant unwavering attachment to truth and virtue, we hope to reflect credit upon them for their training and their efforts.

Beloved parents, your sacrifices have not been unappreciated. You have been successful in your patient endeavors to give us a good education. We regret that mere words are unable to express ourselves to you.

Dear Classmates, we are undertaking different walks of life, the trials and difficulties of which God alone knows what they may be. Tonight, at the culmination of our high school years, we pause to recall the words of our class motto "Great Is the Name of the Lord." Fortified by the encouragement of this spiritual counsel and the training and good example we have received, we are undoubtedly well prepared for all the problems which we must assuredly meet in our future lives.

DANIEL BARRY

SALUTATORY

It is here—this milestone in the walk of life called graduation: a time of solemn joy not unmarred by a trace of sadness that is ever prevalent at a parting of the ways.

Tonight upon behalf of the Class of 1946, it is my singular privilege to sound the note of sincere and cordial welcome to you—our teachers, parents, and friends. To his Excellency, our Bishop, to the Right Reverened Monsignorii, to the chosen priests, members of the faculty and to our parents, we wish to acknowledge heartfelt gratitude. The knowledge, love, and loyalty that has been accorded us so altruistically by all of you these four years past bespeak commemoration far more eloquently than any mere oration could here incite.

Now youth's garment falls about our feet and we don the raiment of young manhood and womanhood. The paths we tread thereon will be many and diversified and each shall be fraught with its own share of ruthless enemies, whose common goal is the eventual, evil destruction of all those who profess the Faith in God. But we shall have no fear of these, because whenever the onset of life occurs—whatever weapons the foes may wield, we shall be prepared, armed as we are with Christian principles of Truth and Catholic Faith in that the Omnipotence of the Lord is ours to command.

Yes, we have gained a sturdy foundation and girded great strength in our beginning with you. So it is altogether fitting, proper and not superfluous that we once more say a simple "thank you." The zeal of your work will not soon be forgotten.

In closing this address of these Commencement exercises, the Class of 1946 implores your blessings and asks for your prayers that we may prove commensurate to your teachings and keep the light of the Love of God ever ignited within us. Pray Him that we do not fall by the wayside in the age old quest of Happiness. Let us hope that He never deems it of necessity to chide as in the Hound of Heaven—

"Ah, fondest, blindest, weakest,
I am He Whom thou seekest
Thou dravest love from thee who dravest Me."

CLASS HISTORY

Final exams were over. It was a beautiful day and I had nothing to do but loaf. I went up in the back yard, lay down on the crisp green grass and closed my eyes. I started thinking. It sure will seem good to be going to see student nite next year instead of being in it. That air-raid shelter plot we had when we were Freshmen wasn't bad for amateurs. Our Freshman Stunt Nite was the thing that really started four years of work and fun. When we participated in "Stunt Nite" we were really members of C.H.S. The Stunt Nite cast was invited to repeat their performance at the U.S.O. As this was the first time C.H.S. had been so requested, the Freshman class quite naturally attributed the fact to the newly-discovered talent of their own class.

We were soon to learn that C.H.S. did not allow Lincoln's Birthday to pass unnoticed. The Band, Orchestra, and Glee Clubs presented a musical program. Many of the music lovers of the class of '46 thus paid tribute to the great man, and at the same time participated in their first school musical.

The Freshmen were introduced to another bit of C.H.S. tradition when they attended a Freshman-Sophomore "get-together" at which the Mothers' Club arranged for roller-skating and dancing.

Recognition was paid to two great men on St. Patrick's day, the patron saint of Ireland, himself; and our own Monsignor Patrick C. Brennan. This remembrance was made in the form of a program of Irish song and verse, produced by the students of the high and grammar schools.

Next on our list of things to do was the Vermont Music Festival. We were sure that the addition of members of our class made the festival an even greater success.

Many of the members of our class attended their first formal prom when they attended the Junior-Senior Prom which took place in May. With the presentation of Class Nite and the dignity of Graduation upon us, we realized that our first school year at C.H.S. had sped by loaded with C.H.S. activities and tradition, and we left for summer vacation with our heads held a bit higher than they were in the previous September, for weren't we full-fledged members of C.H.S. now?

The Class of '46 started out their second year of high school by electing Louis Gelineau to the presidency. They elected Walter Barron, Patricia Gadhue, and Munn Boardman as junior officers. Under their leadership, the wheels of preparation for Stunt Nite, started to roll. The act rested on entertainment for wounded servicemen at a military hospital. Our president did the honors as "emcee" and the class of '46 again became involved in the activities of C.H.S.

This year a truly fine Christmas pageant was presented in the now familiar auditorium. Walter Moulton and Lucille Rocheleau of the class of '46 portrayed Joseph and Mary.

In 1943, the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary (Junior Court), promoted a Valentine's Day Prom. The last dance honored the Virgin Mary, as her hymn was sung. It was a great success.

The class of '46 held seniority at the annual Freshman-Sophomore "get-together."

During the month of May, the Junior Sodality joined with the Parish Sodality in the crowning of Mother Mary.

In 1944, the class of '46 came to C.H.S. and took over with a knowing air. For wasn't C.H.S. now a second home to us? We installed Louis Gelineau to office of president, supported by Daniel Barry, Donald Bruneau, and Theresa Leary.

With the experienced mannerisms that only a Junior can know, the class united minds and hearts in a grand effort to gain the Stunt Nite cup. The plot was based on the evening after Stunt Nite at a local Soda Fountain. With the nonchalance of experienced performers, the class of '46 did extremely well and walked off with first prize.

This year, as in preceding years, a retreat was conducted for the spiritual benefit of the students. It gave us a chance to do a lot of thinking and I'm sure, it was of assistance to all.

The Burlington Music Festival was substituted for the Vermont Music Festival due to wartime restrictions on traveling and C.H.S. set the top standard for the other Burlington schools.

Mary was duly honored by all Sodalists of the Junior Court. In 1945, the Junior Court took complete management of the May crowning. It was as beautiful as ever and this proved that the Junior Court was extremely capable.

This year's Junior-Senior Prom was financed and managed by the class of '46 and due to much hard work the Senior guests enjoyed themselves greatly, as well as the deserving Juniors.

In our Junior year we were allowed to attend the Junior-Senior Banquet for the first time. We were happy to be recognized as the guests of the Mothers' Club, at the delicious meal provided for the upperclassmen.

The graduation of our immediate superiors made us realize that after our summer vacation we would return for our last year of study and activities.

John Daley, Paul Casey, Theresa Leary, and Patricia Sanborn headed the senior class as officers. We started again to the joys and troubles of Stunt Nite. Our plot was "heavenly." Jack Daley depicted Saint Peter, while Walter Barron took the part of a murdered Broadway producer. Humor was prevalent and plentiful and the senior class prompted many a laugh during the evening.

The third annual Sodality Prom was held on Saint Valentine's Day. Decorations were colorful and the guests had a wonderful evening.

Father Joy, our friend and director for four complete years, appointed William Byrnes as Editor-in-Chief of the TOWER Board and gave him about twelve assistants in order that the TOWER Book for the year 1946 would be a true success. This Board sponsored a TOWER dance soon after Easter. It was well attended as most of the fellows and girls were anxious to dance again.

The Vermont Music Festival which had been keeping our musicians very busy for months, was back to old standards. Boys and girls from all over the state participated. It was a thrilling week-end for many. What made it even better was the praise which C.H.S. received from the critics.

Walter Moulton and Kenneth Lapan, two of our best athletes represented the senior class on the baseball diamond. We are certain the team would not get along without them.

Hasty preparations for Class Nite and all that accompanies it, absorbs every spare minute of a Senior's time, and the class of '46 is no exception. It is exciting and fun but it recalls to our minds the fact that these few more days mean goodbye to a place as good as home.

This year's Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet means more than last year's. They mean good-bye to four of the best years of our lives.

Graduation seems more dignified than ever this year because it is the culmination of "our" four years of high school. And it is not just graduation from high school but from Cathedral High School. We are sorry to leave but we are also prepared to leave.

CLASS PROPHECY

Time: 1966

A few days ago as I searched through my library for a book to read, I chanced upon a familiar looking book. Taking it from the shelf, I found it to be the 1946 TOWER. Glancing through the pages I could not help but remember the good old days at C.H.S., and all my classmates whom I hadn't seen for a long time. I resolved to take a trip to Burlington and to look for my old school chums. The very next day I loaded my plane and left for Burlington, arriving at the airport late in the forenoon.

As I landed my jet plane I was surprised to be greeted by Governor Daniel Barry and Mayor William Byrnes. As we made our way through the crowd I noticed my old friend "Bob" Drouin giving flight instructions to a group of cadets. Before arriving at our taxi we met Geraldine Croker, Rita Demage and Lorraine McGuire, now chief stewardesses for the colonial airlines. Entering the taxi I recognized the driver to be Harris Yandow. Harry was now owner of at least a dozen taxicabs, offering their services in Burlington and Winooski.

On our way from the airport to downtown Burlington we chatted about many things and eventually of course, our conversation turned to the class of forty-six. "Billy" had been keeping tabs on most of them. He told me that Theresa Leary and Claire DeVarney were teachers at the U.V.M. Theresa specialized in English and dramatics while Claire was teaching French. Norbert Murphy was instructor of physical culture. "Dick" Leary and Walter Moulton were chemistry teachers at Saint Michael's College. Together they had discovered a way to stop an atomic bomb. Douglas McSweeney was now one of Burlington's foremost surgeons who with the aid of nurses, Mary McGrath and Jeannette Colaceci, had performed many successful operations. Clement Gamache and Bruno Trahan had formed a partnership in the bread business while Clifford Brissette was offering them stiff competition with his little bakery. Shirley Bergeron, Janet Dumont and "Dot" Tourville were instructors at the Burlington Business College.

As we passed the Strong Theater I notice that "Cassie" Malloy, Jack Robbins, Mary Earley and Lucille Rocheleau were starring in the hit picture "The Found Week-end," under the direction of "Jack" Daley.

Being close to noon we decided to have a bite to eat, so we stopped in front of "Red's Dinette" which was owned by Gerald Goyette. As we entered, we were confronted by a sign on the door saying:

> "Some people claim they keep the best,
> WE don't! We sell it."

Elnora Lapan was his cashier, while Theresa Fontaine, Joyce Baker and Jetta Mae Felio were his head waitresses.

As "Red" showed us to our table we met Walter Barron, Carlton Lavalette and Munn Boardman the newly elected aldermen of the Queen City. They were listening to a record by Glenn Erwin and his orchestra, featuring "Bob" Schneider and Bradley Kidder, plus the harmonious voices of the "Sentimentalists," Jean Allaire, "Pat" Gadhue, Barb Miller, "Flo" Laramee and "Pat" Sanborn. His band had been voted the number one band of the year. "Walt" informed us that Paulita Carlin and Geraldine Barnes were featured in New York at the Metropolitan Opera house in New York. Our class had surely become famous as musicians.

After we had eaten dinner, I bade farewell to "Dan" and "Bill" for they had a special conference to attend at the city hall. I proceeded alone up Church Street which was lined with skyscrapers. Could this be the Church Street of twenty years ago? On one of these skyscrapers a sign read "Hayes and Hamelle & Co." "Bill" and Clement had entered the clothing business with stores in New York, Boston and Burlington. Quickly I entered and met "Bob" Free, assistant manager of the Men's Department. "Bob" told me that James Ryan was shipping clerk in Boston with Arthur Demage as his manager. Jane Dudley, "Pat" Shimeld and Veronica Dooley were in charge of the women's department.

As I was leaving I met Claire Provost, Mary Nanna and Lorraine Duclos who were now married and quietly settled in life. Further up the street I met William Perrott who was selling tickets for the greatest boxing show in history, which was taking place that night at the Memorial Auditorium. The bout promoted by "Jack" O'Sullivan, would be between "Ray" Tougas and "Kenny" Lapan for the state heavyweight championship.

My sole desire now was to visit good old C.H.S. I had heard of its enlargement in the past few years. Turning down Pearl Street I was astonished to see not one but four large buildings extending as far as Battery Park. Was it possible that this was Cathedral High?

Just as I approached the central building, out come a large group of women among whom I recognized Sylvia Myers, Lillian Lavalette, Barbara Critchlow and Barbara Sullivan. They had just attended a meeting of the Cathedral High Mothers' Club at which Beverly Romprey had given an address.

Entering the office I saw Father Raymond Ploof, the new Principal and secretary "Pat" Prunier in earnest conversation with General Frederick Rowley who had just arrived from the Orient. Joining them we chatted about our old school days. Father Ploof told us that Dorothy Dreutler and Barbara Bleau were members of the faculty while Charlotte Brown was teaching at Trinity. "Fred" told us that he had met Theresa Whittle and Marcelline Bushway in New York. They were now expert gown designers.

As my time was limited I said good-bye and departed. As I was leaving I met Paul Casey in his new Packard. He offered me a ride to the airport from which I took off for home with happiness in my heart to have seen again the good old friends, old sights, and the old places, especially the school, always dear to the heart of a true Cathedralite.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1946 of Cathedral High School, in the City of Burlington, State of Vermont, being sound of mind and memory do hereby publish and declare this our last will and testament.

Therefore, we bequeath the following:

To Father Joy: We leave our sincere appreciation for his faithful and undivided interest to our class for the last four years.

To Our Teachers: We wish to extend our thanks and deepest gratitude for their faithful guidance, for their patience with us, and their services both spiritually and intellectually.

To Mrs. Holcomb: We leave a Freshman Glee Club capable of filling the places of those you have lost through Graduation.

To Dr. Lechnyr: We leave our best wishes and best luck on your twenty-fifth Anniversary of service in this school.

To Mr. Hammond: We leave a record of participating in our experiments without any accidents.

To Coach Pequignot: We leave our deepest hope for a championship team in basketball next year.

*To Mr. Neary:*We leave our newest invention, an automatic push button cleaner to ease your work in cleaning the school.

To Doris Lawrence: We leave a class which she can coach as easily as she did the Seniors through their four years of stunt-nite.

To the Juniors: We leave Room S in perfect condition with the hope that they can fill it with the dignity, quietness, and serene manner that we the Seniors have been able to attain.

To the Sophomores: We leave a school without a jug and with teachers who give all A's.

To the Freshmen: We leave our childish pranks and manner.

To Editor-in-Chief of next year's TOWER: Bill Byrnes leaves a detailed road map on how to reach Waterbury.

To David Bixby: Doug McSweeney leaves a pair of high powered binoculars to ease the strain on his eyes in his chosen profession.

To Bob Daley: Walt Barron leaves his well tested and approved book entitled, "The Art of Tumbling or How to Break Your Neck in Six Easy Lessons."

To Jane Sherman: Pat Sanborn leaves her notes on, "How to Pass Shorthand."

To Next Year's Boys' Sodality Treasurer: Danny Barry leaves two thousand basketball pins and the bill for them.

To Pete Carney: Dick Leary leaves ten months of torture in Latin class.

To John Korzun: Bob Drouin leaves his look of (study.)

To Lillian Seguin: Lorraine Duclos leaves a right to have as good a time as she did, this year.

To Glenn Critchlow: Big sister Barb leaves her ability to get to school for the last bell and not a second sooner.

To Jack Tourville: His sister Dot leaves her knack for always asking questions.

To Buzzy Farmer: Munn Boardman leaves his book of addresses; for when he grows up.

To any Junior who needs it: Paul Casey leaves his seat in front of Sister's desk for the purpose of bothering her.

To any Junior Girl who needs it: Barb Sullivan leaves her ability to go without a kerchief on rainy days!

To Juliette Rocheleau: Lucille Rocheleau leaves her rickety chair in Room C.

To Norma Pizzagalli: Paulita Carlin leaves her cold Shorthand notes.

To Harriet Gonyeau: Janet Dumont leaves a life time position at S. S. Kresge & Co., plus a two cent increase in wages.

To Joyce LaBelle: Theresa Whittle leaves a book entitled, "How I Spend My Week-ends" or "Time on My Hands."

To Paul McKenzie: Harris Yandow leaves his rhythmic pounding on everything he sees.

To Dick Brisson: Gerald Goyette leaves his parking place in front of the boys' door.

To Martha McGovern and Elvira Nanna: Mary Nanna leaves her ability to day dream and still look interested.

To Jack Farnham: Jack Daley leaves his book entitled, "Eligible Excuses for Evading Jug."

To Marie Caise: Shirley Bergeron leaves an alarm clock to get to school on time.

To Jeannette Fontaine: Therese Fontaine, her sister, leaves her seat in Room C and her bookkeeping book and all the success that goes with it.

To Howard Ross: Jack O'Sullivan leaves his electric razor so that he may be as clean shaven as he always is.

To Paul O'Connor: Clement Hamelle leaves twenty-seven excuses why the South End Bus was late.

To Jeannine Brown: Pat Prunier leaves her methods on how to keep her fingernails short.

To Jeanne Audette: Theresa Leary leaves a note written in French hoping that it will not be censored by every boy in the school.

To Barb Gibbons: Veronica Dooley leaves her record of "It Had to Be You" by Frankie.

To Jean Polworth: Mary Earley leaves her basketball motto: "Guard 'Em or Kill 'Em."

To Harry McCarthy: Bill Hayes leaves his senior dignity its fullest measure.

To John Colaceci: His sister Jeannette leaves her scooter so he can get to school on time.

To Bernie McClintock: Elnora LaPan leaves her ability to refrain from talking.

To Kathleen McGrath: Her sister Mary leaves her capable manner of getting food during the movies without getting caught.

To Joyce Hammond: Jane Dudley leaves her place in Glee Club for the next two years.

To Bernard Ryan: Jimmie Ryan leaves his rules on how to get up at 8:10 a.m., and still get to school on time with his hair combed.

To Jacques Trahan: His brother Bruno leaves the hope that he will receive less jugs than he has.

To Muriel Laramee: His sis Flo leaves her favorite spot on the main corridor after classes.

To Aggie McKenzie: Cassie Malloy leaves a book entitled, "How to Care for Big Brother."

To Terry Gardner: Bob Schneider leaves his telephone number.

To Gerry Daigneault: Kenny Lapan leaves his book entitled, "The Art of Being a Cowboy."

To Walter Flynn: Raymond Tougas leaves his vim, vigor, and vitality.

To Kitty Miller: Barb Miller leaves her pointers on a hundred and one different ways to annoy her homeroom teacher.

To anyone who wants them: Brad Kidder leaves his senior books and all his English notes.

To Alleen Dupras: Lillian Lavalette leaves her booklet on how "To Chew Gum and Get Caught."

To any girl violinist: Jeanne Allaire leaves her seat in All State Orchestra (some work.)

To next year's class will reader: Walt Moulton leaves his ability to put together as good a class will as this one.

Signed and sealed this thirteenth day of June in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and forty-six.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

At this time another chapter in the story of our lives is brought to a close, our high school career is terminated! These years of diligent study, of carefree happy hours, and of serious moments—these wonderful years are now behind us, and we face the future. As we stand confidently on the threshold of a new phase in our lives, we pause this evening to reflect on our high school years.

Glancing back over these years filled with joy and intermingled with sadness, we are gratified to know that our high school education is now successfully completed. We realize, that this success has been achieved through the unselfish assistance of our parents, teachers and benefactors.

To his Excellency our most Reverend Bishop, we gratefully extend our most heartfelt thanks, also to our pastors for their constant aid in our every need both spiritual and material. To you, Father Joy, mere words are not capable of expressing the gratitude we feel in our hearts for your every endeavour to make our stay in high school a most memorable one. Your wise counsel and guidance will be our cherished possession as long as we live. Our youthful but sincere appreciation goes forth to the entire faculty for your untiring efforts and splendid example inspiring us always to seek the higher things of life. Above all we are grateful to our dear parents whose many sacrifices and undying devotion in our behalf has made our Catholic education possible. We offer not alone in words, but also in prayers, the thanks of faithful sons and daughters.

Now we stand ready to take our place in the world. Unstable as that world may seem, we feel confident that we have been thoroughly trained, religiously and intellectually to face all the trials and tribulations this world can offer to Catholic youth. Our training has been the best and we pledge ourselves to use it wisely to obtain material success in this world and eternal bliss in the next.

It is with pleasure in our reminiscence of the past four years, that we call to mind the loyal support and friendliness that has ever marked the underclassmen. It has been a banner under which you have always marched bringing greater and greater enthusiasm and cooperation to all school activities. Our hope this evening is that, as you the Junior class take your place as the respected Seniors, you too will receive the same whole-hearted cooperation that will assure the success of your every undertaking. Possessing this you cannot fail to bring more glory to Cathedral High School which we all love. In closing we ask God to shower His blessings on all who have made this day possible.

In Memoriam

In this Tower, as in the Towers that have preceded it, is a page entitled "In Memoriam." This year, that page holds words which can never be worthy of their topic. The writer admits defeat before he starts, for he realizes that his task is nigh onto impossible. Mere words are incapable of expressing our deep regrets that three who entered our class as Freshmen will be unable to graduate with us. We will remember them and feel sorry that they could not have been with us to share the joys and sadnesses that we, as Seniors, will be privileged to partake in. We will always reserve a place in our hearts for three true members of the class of '46.

CLASS NITE

"Class Nite" to us is one of the greatest events of our high school days. For four years we worked hard, earnestly, and with a determination to do the best in our ability.

This, our last year, I think everyone worked just a little harder, because it meant our last chance of proving to the audience our strong desire of making it a lasting memory in the minds and hearts of the public, as well as in those of our fellow classmates.

Although we have not been too successful in past years, we did win "Top Honors" of first place in our junior year. At this, our last chance, we put on a play entirely different from what has ever been portrayed on the stage at Cathedral High School. Our act depicted the last steps before the final judgment in Heaven. Walt Barron, our top actor, helped to make it an interesting, humorous, and colorful performance.

Although we did not win, we have one consolation, that we did our best to make it a happy remembrance in years to come.

The juniors, though not one of the winning classes, gave a very colorful and entertaining sketch of Aladdin's Lamp. The genie was magnificently played by Harold Thomas. The play held variety, with a great cast of very good performers.

The sophomores won second prize with their original interpretation of an exciting "prize fight."

To the freshmen went first honors for their representation of an "Indian Setting." The highlight of their entertainment was the drum solo by Paul McKenzie. Congratulations are extended to them for their splendid achievement.

May Class Nite continue to be the highlight in the activities of Cathedral High School, for it reveals the talents of all students who participate.

A FAREWELL TO SENIORS

Once again spring has come and simultaneously with its coming we find, much to our sorrow, another senior class graduating.

We, the Juniors, have acquired a most sincere affection for you during the three short years that we have had the privilege of having you as upperclassmen. We have watched you work diligently during these years, and are positive that we have gained much in temporal and spiritual knowledge from your example.

We sincerely hope, from the bottom of our hearts, that the Catholic principles which you have learned while attending Cathedral High School will be with you, your entire life, to enable you to overcome any and all obstacles that may come before you as you go out to face the hardships of this ever changing world.

We will always remember you and we hope that you will never forget Cathedral High School and us. We will include you in all of our prayers and in return would appreciate prayers from you so that we may graduate as admirably as you are.

We wish you all the happiness possible in this world and for all eternity, and although this be a farewell to you from our scholastic friendship, we trust that we will have many happy reunions in this world and the next.

SODALITY IN 1946

The students of Cathedral High School started their year as Sodalists with the election and the installation of officers for both the Boys' and the Girls' Sodalities. The following were chosen as leaders:

	Boys	Girls
Prefect	Munn Boardman	Theresa Leary
Vice-Prefect	Walter Barron	Florence Laramee
Secretary	John Daley	Jeanne Allaire
Treasurer	Daniel Barry	Lucille Rocheleau
Sacristan	Glenn Erwin	Patricia Gadhue

On the Feast of the Holy Rosary, the two Sodalities combined to form an animated rosary in the auditorium. Tableaux depicting the five joyful mysteries added to the devotion which this beautiful ceremony always promotes.

Other projects sponsored by the Sodalists during the year were the Triduum for the Pope, a Christmas party for children, the formation of the "Five Clubs," the Legion of Decency Club, the Annual Sodality Prom and the May Drive.

In January the Sodalists had the privilege of hearing Rev. Patrick Peyton, C.S.C., speak to them in the high school auditorium on his favorite topic, "The Family Rosary." Father Peyton has done much in this country to spread devotion to Mary by recapturing the Rosary. He is restoring it to its primacy of place in the home. Thus he urged all Sodalists to bring this beautiful practice into their own homes.

As it has been proved throughout the years that being a faithful member of the Sodality of our Blessed Lady is one of the best ways by which one can give tribute to the Mother of God, let each Sodalist continue in future years to be a living symbol of purity and a flaming torch of love for Mary and her Divine Son.

DEBATING TEAMS

DEBATES

Of the many activities of Cathedral High School, "debate time" is one of the most anticipated and enthusiastic displays of the wonderful cooperation and school spirit found at Cathedral High School.

During the course of the debates we find the students participating and working together with great earnestness. It is a time in which students have the opportunity of really getting down to real serious research work and proving their own personal opinion on civic affairs.

Last year the Juniors and Freshman Class proved themselves a great success in gaining the full confidence of the audience with their enforceable and logical rebuttals.

Whatever the outcome of this year's debate is, we know the winners will be well deserving of their reward.

"Debate time" is enjoyed by the students and faculty alike, so may it always be a great success in future years.

This year's debaters are:

Seniors:

William Byrnes
Theresa Leary
Daniel Barry
Walter Moulton

Juniors:

Harry McCarthy
Gabrielle Gauthier
Donald Hamlin
Mary Ellen Fuller

Sophomores:

Mary Cassell
Jeannette Pecor
Geraldine Benoir
Gerald Albert

Freshmen:

DR. LECHNYR

To the Musicians:

Again we come to the end of another school year and again I find myself saying "Good-bye" to my good friends, the seniors.

I sincerely hope you have found that music at Cathedral High these past four years has inspired you to better work in your classes and a better understanding of life and the problems you will meet.

Music is indeed the essence of order and leads to all that is good, just, and beautiful.

I will miss you from our music groups, dear seniors, and your places will be difficult to fill.

Good-bye and God Bless You.

DR. LECHNYR.

MRS. HOLCOMB

Farewell to the Glee Clubs:

This year has been especially interesting to me for it brought to Cathedral High a freshman class that broke the record in numbers and has contributed its best in every undertaking. It has even given to the high school a distinctive singing group, and when they begin their sophomore year I earnestly hope it will be with the same zest and determination to excel that they have evinced as freshmen. It is a class to watch!

Saying "Good-bye" to the seniors fills me with sorrow that the years have flown so fast and we must come to the parting. If I detect a smile as you read this paragraph, seniors, recalling certain incidents when parting might seem to be "a consummation devoutly to be wish'd," I can assure you that it was all in the friendliest spirit, and to make C. H. S. Glee Clubs TOPS.

As for the juniors and seniors to be—well that is another story yet to be told, but with you standing by what is there to fear?

Sincerely your friend,

MRS. HOLCOMB.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Although Cathedral did not make any shining record or spread their fame throughout the State this year, they did put on the court one of the lightest teams they had for many years. The faculty, students and fans can be proud of the grit and fight that these boys showed. They never quit the game until the final whistle and then, though even defeated but never outfought, they looked forward with more enthusiasm to the return game in which they could show their supporters and backers that they had a team not only in words, but in actual fight also.

The most remarkable quality of this year's squad was their teamwork. The scoring produced by them was fairly well divided among its participants, but as in every sport there must be an individual high scorer. In this case it was Corey, who played JV ball last year with 106 points. He was closely followed by McCarthy and Captain Kane with 79 respectively, and Brown with 78 points.

Much credit must be given to Coach Pequignot for turning out the fighting team he did. When we stop to think that he had only five veterans from last year's squad, who were Captain Kane and Croto of the starting five, and Daigneault, McCarthy and Ross, only then can we fully appreciate the work which they accomplished.

We, the class of '46, extend our best wishes and are in hopes to see Coach Pequignot bring his boys to the top of the league in the years to come.

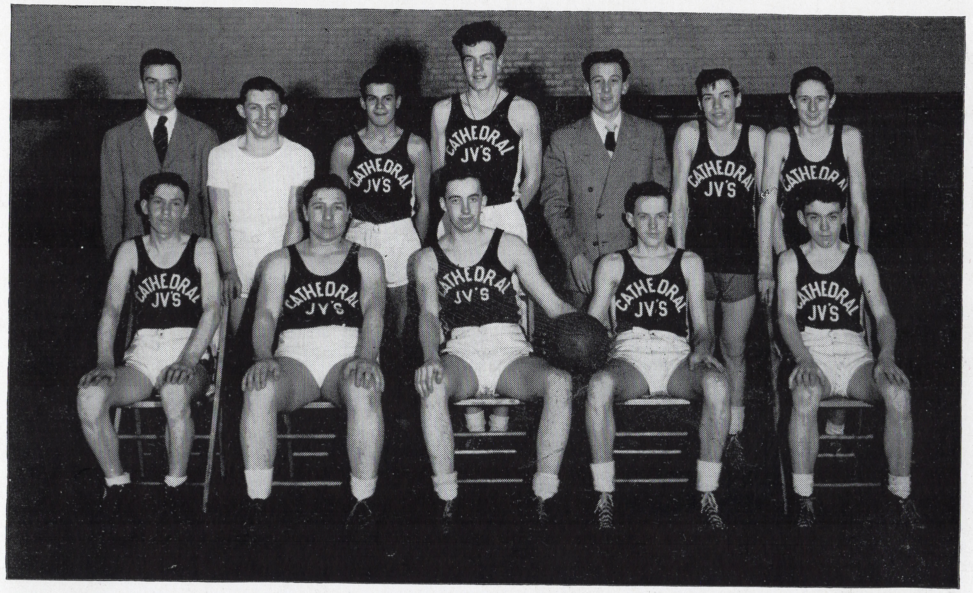
OUR TEAM



JUNIOR VARSITY

This year was productive of one of the finest junior varsity teams Cathedral has known in a long time. Under the tutelage of Coach Lou Merola this year's Jayvee team compiled the excellent record of twenty wins and five losses against tough opposition.

Bobby Ray tossed in 172 points to lead the scoring. He was closely followed by Dick Fitzgerald with 119. Others who helped compile this record were Art Merola, Jimmy Croker and Robert Akey.

Girls' basketball is beginning to be a sport of great interest to the girls of the school. Again this year a better number has turned out than for quite a while. As they come along each year they are learning quickly and proving to be of good value in the making of girls' basketball. This year more in number have turned out and they had a few more games than last year. As they rapidly grow in the future, their scores will increase and their winnings as well. The few games they had this year showed the increasing familiarity with basketball, and they are becoming better sports as they continue learning.

The high scores were as follows: F. Laramee with 59 points, M. McGarghan with 32 points, and M. Delorge with 28 points. Good guarding by all guards helped the forwards.

The girls are now looking forward to another and even more successful season. With the year's experience in back of them, all of this year's team will return to the wars next year, with the exception of Capt. Flo Laramee, Barbara Miller, Mary McGrath and Pat Gadhue, in hopes of making a good record which Cathedral teams may shoot at for a long time in the future.

CLASS TOURNAMENT

This year we had one of the most exciting class basketball tournaments ever held in the school. There were seven teams entered in the tournament—three from the freshman class, two from the sophomore class, one from the junior class, and one from the senior class. The tournament finally boiled down to the championship game in which the Senior Senators faced the Sophomore Black Hawks. It was an exciting game all the way with the Seniors coming out on top at the final whistle by the score of 24 to 22. Jack Robbins paced the Seniors with 10 points. Billy Keogh led the losers with 6 points.

FOUL SHOOTING CONTEST

At the end of the varsity basketball season there was a foul shooting contest held. One contest was held just for the varsity and junior varsity men, while another was held for all other schedules in the school. Pat Brown, a freshman, won first prize in the varsity and junior varsity contest. He made 76 fouls out of a possible 100, and was presented with an Eversharp pen. Ken Richards, a sophomore, won the contest for the other students with 39 fouls out of a possible 60. He also was presented with an Eversharp pen.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders this year, as in years gone past, developed a group of tumblers and acrobats equal to, if not better than, any other squad in the State. Back in their midst were veterans Walt Barron, Bill Hayes and Jack Daley. Under their guidance and the willingness of the new members, another year was successfully completed. The new members included Munn Boardman, Tom Blow, Tom Daley, Bob Daley, Bernard Wheel, Jack Tourville and Don Hamlin. They also lost the services of Fred Rowley, who was called by the armed forces.

The cheerleaders have left this year a record which in years to come will be very difficult to surpass.

BASEBALL

With nearly all of Cathedral's fine team of 1945 back this year the season should be a great success. As Coach Pequignot's call for candidates echoed throughout the corridors of Cathedral, no less than sixty hopefuls reported to the ball park ready to exhibit their ability on the diamond. After a few workouts, Coach Pequignot applied the tomahawk to the large squad of Little Indians. The final cut found the varsity roster studded with promising players. "Lefty" Bixby took over the first base position, "Rip" Marrier and Dick Corey looked good guarding the keystone sack and Gerry Daigneault was throwing out many a would be scorer with his whip-lash arm from third base. The outfield was patrolled by a trio of hard hitting ball chasers, especially Alan Mitchell who led the batters in last year's Northern League. Alan along with Kenny Lapan and Joe Daigler's hitting power accounted for many a Cathedral tally. The batteries for the Green and White found "Sarge" Ross behind the plate receiving the slants of the league leading pitcher George Daigler. We are confident that under Coach Pequignot's watchful eye and guidance they will win games and end with a successful season.

WILL YOU TELL ME WHY OR WHERE?

Why Bob Schneider sits sidewise during Religion . . . . maybe he can get a better view of a certain person. . . .

Why Mary McGrath likes the comic books in Upton's. . . .

Why the boys sit in the front row in Room C . . . . maybe they can talk more up there. . . .

Why Ray Ploof goes in Upton's around closing time. . . .

Why Cassie Malloy is buying maps . . . . maybe to follow the fleet. . . .

Why Big Walt always talks out loud during class time. . . .

Why Glen and Don can't organize a top band some day. . . .

Why Junie hangs around U. V. M. of late. . . .

Why Dick Leary can't carry out an experiment without blowing something up. . . .

Where Mary Earley can't be seen without Jean Allaire. . . .

Why Jack Robbins likes to argue so much . . . . if you say white he says black. . . .

Why Gerald Goyette is growing a mustache. . . .

Why Carlton Lavilette is learning the French language during another class time. . . .

Where Doug McSweeney hangs out. . . .

Why Brad Kidder likes bananas so well. . . .

Where Munn studies his English after school. . . .

Why Dot Tourville wants to take a post graduate course at C. H. S. . . .

Why Ken Lapan and Jimmie Ryan fight during solid geometry. . . .

Why Bill Hayes is always teasing Flo Laramie. . . .

Where Mary Sheehan and Joyce Baker get their strong cheering voices. . . .

Where Bud Byrnes gets the PATIENCE to direct the TOWER Board staff. . . .

Where Mary Nanna gets her vim and vitality. . . .

Why Cliff Brissette listened to Santa Claus during Christmas time. . . .

In the future there will be
Written on the Marquee,
Names of the class of '46
Improving the best of
Hollywood's tricks.
Starting at the top of our list
Hoping there are none we miss
We give you—

Lorraine McGuire's charming way
Replacing that of Lorraine Day.
After Jimmy Stewart is but a dream
You'll see Jimmy Ryan take the scene.
Claire DeVarney's earnest endeavors
Will replace those of Claire Trevor.
William Hayes' personality smile
Outstepping William Powell's by a mile.
When Barb Bleau takes the stage we know
The critics will say "Barb Stanwyck must go."
The performance of our own Bob Free
Will scare Bob Taylor believe you me.
Margaret Sullavan may be tops on your list,
But when you see Barb Sullivan, M. S. won't be missed.
Paul Henried's handsome face,
Paul Casey's soon will replace.

Gratitude

We, the class of '46 dedicate this page to the merchants, professional men, and individuals, who have advertised in this book, in order to express our appreciation for their help.

We know that without their interest and cooperation the publication of this book would have been impossible.

Therefore, with heartfelt gratitude we urge all subscribers of this yearbook to patronize and support the firms represented on the following pages.
